The cross-sectional criteria reflect the Conseil’s strategic priorities for 2018-2020, developed in consultation with the various artistic communities, as well as key elements that contribute to the vitality of the arts sector.

The Conseil complements its mandate-based criteria with cross-sectional criteria in an effort to recognize and encourage the participation of organizations that are making a difference in priority areas identified by Montreal’s arts community. Depending on their mission, the nature of their activities, their background and other factors, these organizations can identify with and relate to a varied assortment of these criteria.

There are three categories of cross-sectional criteria: inclusion, outreach and innovation.
